

FEBRUARY & MARCH 2018

FEB. 7

Financial Health
1:15PM, Rm. 74

This session looks at Personal Financial Planning from the perspective of a law student. Professor Lane (ESB, U of S) will discuss cash flow management, credit card borrowing, major spending items, and saving for future goals. He will also talk about practice management and some important general business concepts. The goal for the session is to help students develop a better idea of how to manage their money and set goals, for their school years and for their professional careers.

FEB. 28

Vancouver and Toronto Recruitment Information Session
1:00PM, Rm. 78

This informal session is a chance for 1L students to learn about the steps for securing 2L summer jobs in Vancouver and Toronto. Noor Mann (2L) and Connor Anear (2L) will share their experiences and discuss the timeline of events and interviews for the 2L recruitment period, which occurs between August-October.

MAR. 9/10

Career Forum

This two-day event attracts over 25 firms from across Western Canada who are in attendance to meet with students from first to third year. The event kicks off with a Wine and Cheese Reception on Friday evening. Saturday includes information sessions, a networking lunch and the career information fair. The event will wrap up with a social hosted by the LSA.

Tickets available Feb. 5 @ 10am: <https://careerforum2018students.eventbrite.ca>

MAR. 21

Articling – Your Rights (and Responsibilities)
1:00PM, Rm. 150

Professor Keir Vallance will provide an introduction to employment law, human rights law, and Law Society rules as they relate to the relationship between articling students and their principals and employers. The articling relationship will be covered from the interview process through to the end of articles. The session will include discussion around what prospective employers can (and shouldn't) ask, clauses to be aware of in employment contracts, harassment in the workplace, and other matters of interest to those entering the profession and job market.

For more information please contact lawcareerservices@usask.ca

