

JAN. 15

Resumes, Cover Letters and LinkedIn

12:00-1:30PM, Rm. 150

In this session, students begin work on developing a clearer understanding of their knowledge, experience, skills, and career goals, and learn how to articulate this through their job search documents (with a focus on resumes and cover letters). Students will be introduced to the 8 Career Readiness Competencies and the JD Graduate Attributes, and explore how these will inform the content of their documents.

Presented by: Brock Egeto, Student Employment and Career Centre, U of S.

JAN. 17

Regina Trip

The Regina trip is an excellent opportunity for students to be exposed to many of the law firms in the city, and to gain face-time with lawyers and recruitment contacts at these firms. Students will travel to Regina as a group and attend group visits together. Space is limited. For more information, please contact Marek Coutu at marek.coutu@hotmail.com.

JAN. 22

Networking and Interviewing

1:00-3:30PM, Rm. 150

In this session, students will look at how to persuasively articulate their knowledge, experience, skills and career goals through interviewing and networking. Students will learn techniques to effectively respond to common and challenging interview questions, and develop an approach to interact with professionals in a networking event setting.

Presented by: Brock Egeto, Student Employment and Career Centre, U of S.

JAN. 24

Mock Interviews

CBA Saskatchewan organizes an annual Mock Interview event for students at the College of Law. Mock interviews are conducted by volunteer lawyers who are interested in assisting law students as they prepare for interviews in the legal field. Interviewers will take students through a mock interview process, and conduct a résumé critique.

For more information and to register, visit the CBA Saskatchewan website.

Registration deadline is Jan. 17 at 4PM.

JAN. 29

Clerking with the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench

12:00PM, Rm. 254

Thinking about clerking, but not sure if it is the right choice for you? Sarah Nordin, the Law Clerk at the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench in Saskatoon, will meet with students to provide an overview of the application process and discuss the clerking experience. The deadline to apply to clerk at the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench is February 20, 2018.

JAN. 31

Running Your Own Business and Corporate Law

1:00-2:30PM, Rm. 150

Join College of Law alumni Jason Peszko, of Peszko & Watson Barristers and Solicitors, and Marinko Jelovic, of Robertson Stromberg LLP, as they discuss their respective career paths, running your own business, and corporate law.

For more information please contact lawcareerservices@usask.ca

