

2nd Annual
INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW CONFERENCE

HUMANIZING WARFARE: Successes and Challenges with Implementing the Law of Armed Conflict

WHEN: October 27, 2017, 12 to 4 p.m.

WHERE: University of Saskatchewan,
MLT AIKINS Lecture Theatre, Room 150,
15 Campus Drive, College of Law

Pizza lunch provided

WHAT: Hear from practitioners and academics who have direct experience with implementing International Humanitarian Law. We will be exploring the training of state armed forces, working with non-state armed groups, negotiating arms control treaties, and achieving accountability through the prosecution of war criminals.

REGISTRATION IS FREE. Guarantee your seat by registering at redcross.ca/IHLYXE

Accredited for 3.5 CPD hours by the Law Society of Saskatchewan

