

ACCESS TO JUSTICE: WHAT'S A FAMILY LAW JUDGE TO DO?

THE HONOURABLE JUSTICE R. JAMES WILLIAMS
FAMILY DIVISION, SUPREME COURT OF NOVA SCOTIA

*Pop-up event***

An influential judge and legal educator, Justice Williams has served Nova Scotia's Family Court for over 30 years.

During his distinguished career, he has been one of the principle architects of family law education in Canada, leading the development of the National Judicial Institute's Family Law Program for judges, and teaching family law in universities across the globe.

Free - all welcome.

CPD credit: 1 hour including ethics

Monday, Feb. 12, 2018

12 noon

MLT AIKINS Lecture Theatre
College of Law
15 Campus Drive
University of Saskatchewan

