

SASKATCHEWAN
ACCESS TO JUSTICE
WORKING GROUP

BULLETIN FOR AUGUST 2016

Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan is launching a quarterly clinic pilot in partnership with organizations in Alberta to bring a more regular clinic to Lloydminster. The kick-off for the pilot will be on September 9, 2016. Volunteer lawyers are sought to assist with the clinic. Visit <http://www.pblsask.ca/volunteer> to become involved.

British Columbia launches first-in-Canada online tribunal to resolve civil disputes: <http://bit.ly/29QXRv7>.

Intakes at CLASSIC will be suspended after August 3 until September 12, 2016. This delay will allow CLASSIC to address internal capacity issues and a regular turnover of students. For more information about CLASSIC, visit <http://www.classiclawa.ca>.

The Law Society of Saskatchewan Library is developing a strategic plan to better serve its members. To ensure that it is offering the resources and services lawyers need, please take 10-15 minutes to fill out the survey at the link you received in your weekly LSS email. If you did not receive the link, contact melanie@lawsociety.sk.ca.

Six teams competing for $50,000 in seed funding have moved forward in the "Ontario A2J Challenge", a call to startups with innovative solutions that aim to improve access to justice for Canadians: <http://bit.ly/2a5WjXz>.

Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan is pleased to introduce new Programs Manager & Staff Lawyer, Carly Romanow, effective July 4, 2016. Carly comes to PBLS with a range of experience in private practice and in coordinating access to justice related initiatives. Welcome, Carly!

Register now for upcoming access to justice related conferences:

National Pro Bono Conference - September 28-30 in Ottawa: <http://bit.ly/2aeqMyo>

CIAJ Civil Justice and Economics Conference - October 5-7 in Ottawa: <http://bit.ly/29lkwY8>

Public Legal Education and the Access to Justice Movement - October 20-21 in Toronto: <http://bit.ly/29oOQkZ>

PASS IT ON! SUBMIT YOUR BITE-SIZED ACCESS TO JUSTICE NEWS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BULLETIN TO a2jworkinggroup@usask.ca AND ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BULLETIN AT <http://bit.ly/29eyYPr>.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Law
LAW.USASK.CA