

SASKATCHEWAN
ACCESS TO JUSTICE
WORKING GROUP

BULLETIN FOR DECEMBER 2016

Are you part of an organization, court, tribunal, et al working on access to justice? The deadline to complete the National Action Committee survey on access to justice has been extended to December 31, 2016. Learn more and complete the survey here: <http://svy.mk/2h8aUjS>

View Ted Talk on how Andrew Arruda (JD'14), a University of Saskatchewan College of Law alumnus, wants "ROSS" (the world's first artificially intelligent legal assistant) to help make the practice of law cheaper and create "justice for all": <http://bit.ly/2iiGn86>

Results of Public Perceptions of Access to Justice Survey (<http://bit.ly/2eelils>) indicate most Ontarians say justice system is "broken": <http://on.thestar.com/2dmhyku>

The Saskatchewan Access to Legal Information Project featured in Bencher's Digest: <http://bit.ly/2ij6fk5>

National database of professionals assisting self-represented litigants has launched: <http://bit.ly/2i1mC47>

Saskatchewan Provincial Court Judge Pat Reis encourages legal community to be proactive in achieving goals of access to justice and Reconciliation: <http://bit.ly/2ims3Ye>

Purchase your tickets now for the Gown to Gown Lawyers' Charity Gala, taking place January 27, 2017 in Regina in support of Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan: <http://bit.ly/2fzW5qc>

Donate now to get on VIP entry list for Karaoke & Lip Sync Battle, taking place February 9, 2017 in Saskatoon in support of CLASSIC ($40 adults and $25 students): <http://bit.ly/1nUS9Ef>

Family Law Information Sessions for the public resume in Regina every Wednesday from 9:30-11:30 am at Court of Queen's Bench Library starting on January 11, 2017. In Saskatoon, sessions continue every Tuesday at 1:00-3:00 pm at the PLEA Office, on January 26 (2:30-4:30 pm at Cliff Wright Branch Library, 6:30-8:30 pm at Frances Morrison Central Library), and on January 27 (9:30-11:30 am at Court of Queen's Bench Library).

PASS IT ON! SUBMIT YOUR BITE-SIZED ACCESS TO JUSTICE NEWS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BULLETIN TO a2jworkinggroup@usask.ca AND ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BULLETIN AT <http://bit.ly/29eyYPr>.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Law
LAW.USASK.CA