

SASKATCHEWAN
ACCESS TO JUSTICE
WORKING GROUP

BULLETIN FOR FEBRUARY 2017

Official launch of CREATE Justice, the College of Law's new centre for research, evaluation, and action in the areas of access to legal services, dispute resolution, and systemic justice, taking place March 1 at 1pm outside the Native Law Centre Ceremonial Room.

How Access to Justice Efforts Are Changing the Consumer Legal Market: <http://bit.ly/2m4n5Fq>

Sandra Bobyk, Barbara Mysko, and Katherine Roy receive 2016 Pro Bono Service Award for volunteer work on Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan's Immigration & Refugee Panel: <http://bit.ly/2l6oafT>

JUST Rights "Rundraiser" for CLASSIC on March 4 in Saskatoon. Register here: <http://bit.ly/2m4dT3M>

CBA National Access to Justice Committee launches professional development webinar series, with pricing discount for non-members actively involved in access to justice community: <http://bit.ly/2jjpDtf>

Law Society of Saskatchewan offers session on Innovating Legal Regulation at CBA Mid-winter Meeting: <http://bit.ly/2m03h53>

Increasing access to legal information via photo walkthroughs as legal guides: <http://bit.ly/1nUS9Ef>

Ministry of Justice offering free educational programming for children of separation of divorce.
For more information and to register, call Family Justice Services at 306-787-8506.

British Columbia's Civil Resolution Tribunal set to launch small claims dispute tool: <http://bit.ly/2mopJGd>

7th Annual Just Rights Art Auction on March 9 from 7pm-10pm at Louis Loft, University of Saskatchewan.
All proceeds go to CLASSIC.

PASS IT ON! SUBMIT YOUR BITE-SIZED ACCESS TO JUSTICE NEWS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BULLETIN TO a2jworkinggroup@usask.ca AND ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BULLETIN AT <http://bit.ly/29eyYPr>.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Law
LAW.USASK.CA