

SASKATCHEWAN

ACCESS TO JUSTICE

WORKING GROUP

BULLETIN FOR JANUARY 2017

Last call for the Ministry of Justice Appropriate Dispute Resolution Survey: <http://svy.mk/2kerDFh>

Access to Justice Needs Access to Justice Research: <http://bit.ly/2koGU5n>

CBA National Access to Justice Committee launches professional development webinar series, with pricing discount for non-members actively involved in access to justice community: <http://bit.ly/2jjpDtf>

Small town justice: Rural circuit points play integral role in Sask. court system: <http://bit.ly/2koTdSJ>

Ministry of Justice offering free educational programming for children of separation of divorce.
For more information and to register, call Family Justice Services at 306-787-8506.

In case you missed it, Saskatchewan Office of Residential Tenancies informational video created on how to prepare for a tenancy hearing: <http://bit.ly/2foiCsx>

Introducing the Alberta Limited Legal Services Project: <http://bit.ly/2jBbFD6>

Community Advocacy & Legal Centre launches Rural Justice and Health Partnerships website and video, highlighting project partners' experience with the initiative and its impact on patients: <http://bit.ly/2jB5AXA>

Donate now to get on the VIP entry list for the Karaoke & Lip Sync Battle, taking place February 9, 2017 in Saskatoon in support of CLASSIC ($40 adult and $25 student): <http://bit.ly/1nUS9Ef>

National Self-Represented Litigants Project Research Fellow Nikki Gershbain to develop and promote new "legal coaching" model: <http://bit.ly/2jAURMQ>

PASS IT ON! SUBMIT YOUR BITE-SIZED ACCESS TO JUSTICE NEWS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BULLETIN TO a2jworkinggroup@usask.ca AND ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BULLETIN AT <http://bit.ly/29eyYPr>.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

College of Law

LAW.USASK.CA