

CREATE Justice

Centre for Research, Evaluation, and Action Towards Equal Justice

Access to Legal Services - Dispute Resolution - Systemic Justice

Bulletin

March 2019

“The Most Significant Access to Justice Gathering in a Decade”: <https://bit.ly/2OFEq2Q>.

Saskatchewan legal information project aims to increase access to justice using public libraries: <https://bit.ly/2uBaaNo>.

Concern with rising number of people in Saskatchewan who can't afford lawyers: <https://bit.ly/2UzFXgo>.

Empirical tool on Legal Needs Surveys and Access to Justice intends to advance understanding of people's everyday legal problems and experience with the justice system: <https://bit.ly/2HXevDa>.

B.C. turning to online tribunal to deal with some vehicle accident claims: <https://tgam.ca/2uFc4N5>.

Free help with wills and estates: <https://bit.ly/2UwioVL>.

Free help with family law problems: <https://bit.ly/2FS71zi>.

NEW - Free help with family law problems in Prince Albert: <https://bit.ly/2COtzPk>.

ADR Institute of Saskatchewan sponsoring an Introductory Mediation training from April 22–26: <https://bit.ly/2SsLhgf>.

Spotlight on Inmates Panel Program, providing legal advice and representation to inmates facing institutional legal issues: <https://bit.ly/2U8pmAJ>.

UsaskLaw student Shelby Fitzgerald partners with CREATE Justice to promote dialogue on Access to Justice crisis by asking students and faculty "Why do we need Access to Justice?": <https://bit.ly/2TKWEko>.

Applications for CBA Young Lawyers International Program, serving justice needs of marginalized communities, being accepted for 2019-2020 cycle until April 30: <https://bit.ly/2CPRmyp>.

CREATE Justice and the College of Law held Third Annual Research Poster Competition, promoting access to legal information and research: <https://bit.ly/2UfyzqR>.

PASS IT ON! SUBMIT YOUR BITE-SIZED ACCESS TO JUSTICE NEWS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BULLETIN TO createjustice@usask.ca AND ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BULLETIN AT <http://bit.ly/29eyYPr>.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

College of Law

LAW.USASK.CA/CREATEJUSTICE