

Experiential Education Program

Participating in experiential learning offerings provides law students a unique and invaluable opportunity to bridge the gap between theory and practice. By enrolling in any of these courses, you will gain firsthand experience working with clients, and collaborating with practitioners. This not only hones your legal skills but also builds your confidence and professional network. Experiential education allows you to explore different legal fields, helping you to identify your interests and strengths, and guiding your career path. If you are eager to enhance your legal education with hands-on experience, then an EL-based course is the perfect choice for you.

The following courses are only available for 2L and 3L students. Applications are not required for the course based EL offerings. For more information on placements or EL-based courses, please contact law.EL@usask.ca or peruse <https://law.usask.ca/students/jd-students/experiential-learning.php>

Here are the 2024-2025 placements available for law students, offering a range of hands-on experiences and seminars designed to enhance your practical skills and professional development:

APPLICATION-BASED
RURAL EXTERNSHIP
LAW 434: Rural Law Externship + Seminar	A full-time, 14-week placement (12 CU) that allows law students to learn through direct experience, hands-on mentorship, and critical reflection. Centered around students' clinical experiences in a rural legal setting at Legal Aid and Public Prosecutions, they will work with client files across a spectrum of legal areas potentially including family law and criminal law, gaining a deeper understanding of various legal challenges specific to rural communities. Students will be supervised throughout their legal assignments by a practicing lawyer, ensuring guidance and support as they navigate real-world client files. As part of their externship and the associated seminar (3 CU), students will gain essential tools to critically reflect upon their legal practice and explore their identities as future lawyers. This immersive insight into the legal system in rural areas prepares students to effectively contribute to and advocate within these communities. Students are expected to engage in their extern duties from Monday to Thursday each week, with Friday mornings dedicated to attending an online clinical law seminar. Students may propose a location or select from a pre-set list.
PRACTICUM PLACEMENTS
LAW 492: Clinical Law Practicum + Seminar	A 13-week placement at CLASSIC engaging in hands-on legal work, managing client files, preparing legal documents, and taking on the role of legal advocates under the supervision of the clinic's supervising lawyers. Students are expected to be at CLASSIC from Monday to Thursday each week (12 CU) and attend a seminar delivered by Professor Sarah Buhler on Friday mornings (3 CU).

LAW 484: Criminal Law Practicum + Seminar	A 9-week placement at a criminal lawyer's office (12 CU), engaging deeply with all aspects of criminal law practice, supplemented by guest lectures and seminars to debrief. Students gain courtroom experience with judges, complete one major paper, one minor paper, and maintain weekly reflective journals. The practicum is supplemented with a series of lectures during the first two weeks of term and then with a weekly seminar on Fridays (3 CU) provided by sessional instructors Brian Pfefferle, K.C. and Jay Watson, Cuelenaere LLP Partner.
LAW 498: Indigenous Child Protection Practicum &amp; Seminar	A semester-long 3 CU practicum taught by Professor Jamesy Patrick where students collaborate directly with FSIN and Indigenous communities, supporting the development and research of legal frameworks, and national standards that impact Indigenous children and caregivers in Saskatchewan. Students engage in various legal and social policy activities, including legislation development, tribunal training, and case-specific research, utilizing a two-eyed seeing research model.
LAW 498: CREATE Justice Internship	A semester-long 3 CU (6 hours weekly) internship with CREATE Justice, under the supervision of the Director, engaging in systemic justice reform projects. Activities include performing detailed legal research, drafting documents for internal use and publication on CREATE's website, and developing communication skills through regular verbal reports and meetings with the Director, stakeholders, and potentially Saskatchewan Access to Justice meetings.
LAW 323: Law Reform Commission of Saskatchewan Internship	A semester-long 3 CU (6 hours weekly) internship where students work on active law reform projects under the supervision of the Director at the Commission. They engage in a variety of tasks including intensive legal research, analysis, and the drafting of documents and website content. Students attend scheduled meetings with the Director, provide regular verbal reports, written assignments with set deadlines, and participation in Commission meetings.
French Common Law Internships (CCLF only)	Offered in partnership with the Law Faculty of the University of Ottawa, it includes an Introduction to French Common Law course, an Internship, a French Common Law course, a Language Rights course, the Bastarache Moot course, an Independent Interdisciplinary Research course, and completion of 12 CUs at a French language common law institution.
