

7th Canadian Commercial Law Symposium, Sept. 23, 2023

We are delighted to invite submissions to the 7th Canadian Commercial Law Symposium, to be hosted by Queen's Law in Kingston, Ontario on Saturday, September 23, 2023.

This year's Symposium will emphasize the theme of "digitalization and commercial law". However, we welcome expressions of interest to present papers on any commercial law topic, including bankruptcy and insolvency, secured transactions, judgment enforcement, banking law, sale of goods, and related areas.

Please submit a proposal including the presenter's name, proposed paper title, and a short description or abstract (100-200 words) by Monday May 29, 2023. Papers selected for presentation will be due in draft form by August 31, 2023 to allow for their circulation to participants ahead of the Symposium.

We also welcome expressions of interest from individuals interested in acting as commentators on the papers being presented. If you are interested in acting as a commentator, please indicate the area(s) of commercial law in which you are most interested.

Send your expressions of interest to serve as a presenter and/or commentator by email to gail.henderson@queensu.ca. Please include "CCLS2023" in the subject line of your email.

Co-Convenors: Gail Henderson (Queen's), Joshua Karton (Queen's), Anna Lund (Alberta)
