KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Mia Kirshner

Canadian Actor, Mia Kirshner will discuss the overdue changes happening in the film industry, her work forging that path, and discuss a survivor's path to healing. Mia is best known for her pivotal series regular role as 'Jenny Schecter' in Showtime's The L-Word, for which the show creator, Chaiken, is quoted by the New York Times as having said, "There are no boundaries to what Ms. Kirshner can do as an actor.. I see her having such a great range. I do see her as a leading lady".

She is the creator/co-author of I Live Here published by Pantheon. Mia headlined for the Lifetime movie The College Admissions Scandal and has received critical acclaim for her portrayal of Elizabeth Short, alongside Scarlett Johansson and Hilary Swank, in the Brian De Palma Feature, The Black Dahlia. Her other credits include significant roles in 24, Defiance, Atom Egoyan's Exotica, and more recently, Milton's Secret, alongside Donald Sutherland.

Most recently, Mia can be seen portraying the heavily recurring 'Amanda Grayson' in CBS's Star Trek: Discovery.

Anna Maria Tremonti

Canadian Journalist, Anna Maria Tremonti will discuss her recent book about intimate partner violence and pushing through the glass ceiling in Canadian Broadcasting. For 17 years, Anna Maria Tremonti hosted CBC Radio One's The Current, where her mix of hard-edged journalism and hard-won empathy helped build the show into Canada's most listened-to radio program. She is currently the host of Welcome to Paradise on CBC Podcasts. Her recognizable voice, thoughtful questions, and her approach to finding the humanity in the people you meet, draws listeners in.
