

USING DATA AND DESIGN FOR ACTION: NEXT STEPS FOR FAMILY JUSTICE IN SASKATCHEWAN

Join us for a panel discussion that will include perspectives on how leaders of the justice sector are using data and design methods to foster a collaborative and coordinated approach to improving family justice in Saskatchewan.

Guest speaker panel:

Diana Lowe (Reforming the Family Justice System Initiative | AB)

Stacy Muller (Dispute Resolution, Ministry of Justice)

Tiffany Paulsen, KC (Robertson Stromberg Barristers & Solicitors)

Chief Justice Martel Popescul (Court of King's Bench | SK)

Moderator: Lionel McNabb (Ministry of Justice)

Tuesday, Oct. 25, 2022
12pm-1:30pm

MCKERCHER CLASSROOM (RM 74), LAW BUILDING
15 CAMPUS DRIVE, SASKATOON, SK

This event is free and open to the public. Livestream available at law.usask.ca.

CPD Credit: 1.5 hours