

PRACTICING LAW WITH INDIGENOUS PEOPLES FROM AN INDIGENOUS PERSPECTIVE

Renée Pelletier

MANAGING PARTNER, OLTHUIS, KLEER, TOWNSHEND LLP

Renée Pelletier is Maliseet and grew up in Fall River, Nova Scotia.

Her practice includes work on Indigenous and treaty rights litigation, and specific claims.

A member of the Indigenous Bar Association, Renée is passionate about assisting her Indigenous clients in achieving greater self-determination, and strives to incorporate the legal traditions of her Indigenous clients into the work she does on their behalf.

Tuesday, Nov 21, 2017

12 noon

NATIVE LAW CENTRE

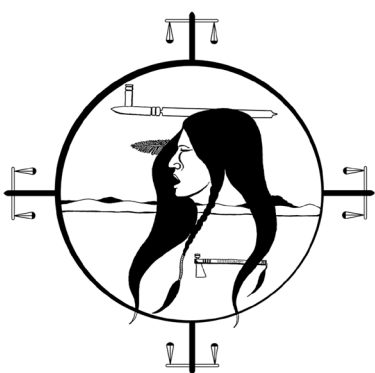

College of Law

15 Campus Drive

University of Saskatchewan

All welcome

Soup and bannock will be provided

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Law
LAW.USASK.CA