

Jury Reform in Canada

Kent Roach

Professor and Prichard Wilson Chair in Law and Public Policy
University of Toronto

Is it time for change or abolition of juries in Canada? Professor Roach will examine jury selection issues and reform including use of peremptory challenges. He has worked with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission on its legacy volume, and represented Aboriginal Legal Services of Toronto in jury selection.

Wednesday, Feb. 28, 2018

1pm

MLT AIKINS LECTURE THEATRE

College of Law
15 Campus Drive
University of Saskatchewan

This event is free and open to the public.

CPD credit: 1 hour

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Law
LAW.USASK.CA