

Wunusweh Lecture in Aboriginal Law
Shape Shifting: Making Space for Indigenous Process Within the Politics of Canada

Marilyn Poitras

Professor, U of S College of Law and former commissioner to the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

Marilyn Poitras is Michif Irish and from the prairies. She is a scholar of Indigenous legal traditions, and has worked on ancestral domain and Indigenous land issues throughout her career.

Monday, Feb. 26, 2018

7PM

Gordon Oakes Red
Bear Student Centre

5 Campus Drive
University of Saskatchewan

This event is free and open to the public.

CPD credit: 1 hour

