

IMAGINING A CROSS-CULTURAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM: A CIRCLE DISCUSSION

The recent Boushie and Fontaine cases have raised the issue of systemic problems with the Canadian criminal justice system. How can Indigenous law, customs and processes become a greater part of a cross-cultural justice system where both legal traditions are respected and valued?

Join us to explore this question and more.

Speakers:

Larry Chartrand
Academic Director
Native Law Centre

Michael Gatin
Indigenous Mediator
Bridges Mediation Services

Marilyn Poitras
Professor
College of Law

Facilitated by Glen Luther, QC,
Professor, College of Law.

Opening greeting by Maria Campbell,
Cultural Advisor, College of Law.

Pop-up event

Monday, March 12, 2018
12 noon

Gordon Oakes Red Bear Student Centre
5 Campus Drive
University of Saskatchewan

Free - all welcome.

