

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Law
LAW.USASK.CA

SUPPRESSING FREE SPEECH, PAST AND PRESENT: PIETIES, POLITICS, AND PROFESSORS

Dr. Moin Yahya
Professor and Vice-Dean
University of Alberta Faculty of Law

Jason MacLean
Professor
University of Saskatchewan College of Law

Words matter; words hurt.

Governments and universities alike have on many occasions prohibited free speech.

But are they right to do so? Can speech be suppressed in a fair and principled way?

Join Professors Yahya and MacLean for a discussion exploring the suppression of unpopular speech on and off campus, past and present.

Thursday, March 8, 2018

6pm

MLT AIKINS Lecture Theatre
College of Law
15 Campus Drive
University of Saskatchewan

Presented in partnership between the College of Law and the Institute for Liberal Studies.

Free to attend, all welcome. Register your attendance at <http://www.liberalstudies.ca/event-registration/>