

SASKATCHEWAN
ACCESS TO JUSTICE
WORKING GROUP

BULLETIN FOR MAY 2017

Legal services task team appointed by government of Saskatchewan to explore provision of legal services by non-lawyers: <http://bit.ly/2qcKZ43>.

Law Society of Saskatchewan Library presents on access to legal information innovation in Saskatchewan at provincial & national library conferences: <http://bit.ly/2ri549c>.

The Action Group on Access to Justice (TAG) on a path to inclusive technology to improve access to justice: <http://bit.ly/2qhBLzl>.

Join Annual General Meetings of Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan & CBA Saskatchewan Branch on June 15, 2017: <http://bit.ly/2rCYIRM>.

Law Society of Saskatchewan Annual General Meeting & Panel Discussion on Technology & the Changing Legal Landscape on June 15, 2017: <http://bit.ly/2qxRcrv>.

Joint Annual General Meetings of CLASSIC and Elizabeth Fry Society on June 22, 2017: <http://bit.ly/2rVInol>.

Free family law help now offered in Moose Jaw on first Thursday of each month: <http://bit.ly/2qhiopX>.

Calgary Provincial Court Judge Dunnigan provides information on family court cases on CBC Radio series: <http://bit.ly/2qXsBce>.

National Action Committee on Access to Justice in Civil and Family Matters launches public engagement campaign: <http://bit.ly/2qTdwHE>.

Pilot project launched by College of Law and CLASSIC, offering course credit to law students to participate in intensive clinical law program over Summer 2017.

New blog post by 2017 Law Foundation of Ontario Research Fellow, Nikki Gershbain on promoting legal coaching in family law: <http://bit.ly/2qXLaz6>.

PASS IT ON! SUBMIT YOUR BITE-SIZED ACCESS TO JUSTICE NEWS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BULLETIN TO a2jworkinggroup@usask.ca AND ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BULLETIN AT <http://bit.ly/29eyYPr>.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Law
LAW.USASK.CA