

SASKATCHEWAN
ACCESS TO JUSTICE
WORKING GROUP

BULLETIN FOR DECEMBER 2017

Victor P. Dietz, Q.C. Pro Bono Service Award nominations due January 5: <http://bit.ly/2BpKlvM>.

Support CLASSIC by purchasing tickets for the inaugural "Cirque de CLASSIC" Fundraiser being held on January 19 in Saskatoon: <http://bit.ly/2zuD4lR>.

Sask.'s top judge spearheading book collection for people behind bars: <http://bit.ly/2CyS4Bn>.

Thompson Rivers University law students create apps aimed at improving access to justice, presented during "Battle of the Apps": <http://bit.ly/2As6Mjb>.

Legal Innovation Zone at Ryerson University announces Global Family Justice Initiative: <http://bit.ly/2j4vvsW>.

Landlord registry would protect vulnerable renters, non-profit says: <http://bit.ly/2zTIQ3a>.

Update on Saskatchewan Access to Legal Information Project featured in Winter 2017 edition of Law Society of Saskatchewan's Benchers' Digest : <http://bit.ly/2Bt81Wx>.

New report on Millennials, Technology and Access to Justice released by The Action Group on Access to Justice (TAG): <http://bit.ly/2gwLDC4>.

New publications from the Canadian Research Institute for Law and the Family, including topics of Parenting Coordination and Children's Participation in Justice Processes: <http://bit.ly/2Bv4pn7>.

Saskatchewan modernizing small claims court process: <http://bit.ly/2hWlayg>.

Special Issue of Windsor Yearbook of Access to Justice published on "Innovation and Access to Justice: Addressing the Challenge of a Diverse Justice Ecosystem": <http://bit.ly/2kAYnJg>.

Congratulations to the Hon. Thomas Cromwell, honorary fellow of CREATE Justice, named to the Order of Canada: <http://bit.ly/2CXGKwf>.

PASS IT ON! SUBMIT YOUR BITE-SIZED ACCESS TO JUSTICE NEWS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BULLETIN TO a2jworkinggroup@usask.ca AND ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BULLETIN AT <http://bit.ly/29eyYPr>.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Law
LAW.USASK.CA