

The final results of the 2015-2016 academic year show the following approximate patterns of individual student averages.

FIRST YEAR

- The top 5% attained averages 81.00% and over
- The top 10% attained averages 79.20% and over
- The top 20% attained averages 77.00% and over
- The top 30% attained averages 75.20% and over
- The top 50% attained averages 72.70% and over
- The top 75% attained averages 68.70% and over

SECOND YEAR

- The top 5% attained averages 84.67% and over
- The top 10% attained averages 81.56% and over
- The top 20% attained averages 78.50% and over
- The top 30% attained averages 76.40% and over
- The top 50% attained averages 74.11% and over
- The top 75% attained averages 70.60% and over

THIRD YEAR

- The top 5% attained averages 81.50% and over
- The top 10% attained averages 81.00% and over
- The top 20% attained averages 79.40% and over
- The top 30% attained averages 78.00% and over
- The top 50% attained averages 75.22% and over
- The top 75% attained averages 72.10% and over

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Doug Surtees".

Doug Surtees
Associate Dean Academic
College of Law
University of Saskatchewan