DESIGN OF THE CURRICULUM

Pathways: Subject Areas for Student Advising Purposes

Courses have been organized into subject areas. Those courses that are foundational in that subject area have been identified with an asterisk “*”. The courses have been organized as follows:

- Business Law
- Commercial Law
- Criminal Law
- Environmental Law & Natural Resources
- Family Law
- Health Law
- Human Rights
- Indigenous Peoples & Law
- International Law
- Labour and Employment
- Legal Practice, Advocacy and Dispute Resolution
- Sub-group: Moots
- Legal Theory
- Property Law and Succession
- Public Law
- Taxation
- Other

Please see here for more detailed information.

Types of Courses

French Common Law Option

It is possible for students to pursue a French Common Law option. Details can be found on the College of Law website on the Certificates and combined degree programs page.

JD/MBA Option

It is possible for students to pursue an MBA through Edwards School of Business concurrently with their JD. Details can be found on the College of Law website – again, on the Certificates and combined degree programs page.

Seminars

The College offers small-group seminars as a vehicle for the advanced study of selected areas of law. Each student is required to complete one seminar during either the second or third year of study. Maximum enrolment in seminars is 15 students, and the primary mode of assessment is by the writing of papers. In many seminars the students present their papers to the seminar group. The "seminar" requirement and major paper requirement can be satisfied concurrently in a single course, as can the "seminar" and minor paper requirement.

Summary of Mandatory Requirements

Students are required to successfully pass 30 credit units in each of second and third year. Each student must achieve an overall average of 64% in the year. Students who do not achieve a 64% average but do achieve an average of at least 60%, may write supplementals in courses where their mark is below 64% and must write supplementals in courses they failed.

In addition, students must successfully complete:

Three Mandatory classes:

Administrative Law 340.3 in second year; Legal Ethics & Professionalism 421 or the Legal Ethics Clinical Seminar Law 497; and one senior level Indigenous course. A list of classes meeting this requirement will be provided to students each year.

Two Papers:

A minor paper and a major paper. A minimum of 60% is required on each. At least one must be completed in second year. The requirements are contained in the Academic Regulations.

One Seminar:

A minimum of 60% is required.

Upper Year Law Classes – Pathways: Subject Areas for Student Advising Purposes

This document broadly classifies law courses into subject interest areas. Some classes fit within multiple subject areas. Where applicable, some courses are marked with an asterisk (“*”) to identify them as foundational classes within the given subject area. For instance, those with a particular interest in the subject/practice of criminal law may note that Criminal Procedure is marked as a class that is foundational to this area, and thus likely useful as a base for other classes in the area.

CURRICULUM INFORMATION
SECOND YEAR LAW STUDENTS

March 2020

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SECOND-YEAR STUDENTS REGARDING THE PROGRAM FOR 2020-2021

Although the final list of courses and seminars for 2020-2021 is not yet available, this document includes all the descriptions from which it is likely you will be able to select for your remaining two years of law.

The package will be supplemented at a later date with a list of elective choices for first and second terms, a course timetable, and an examination timetable for each term. You will be required to register for both terms when registration at the end of June. Students will be able to register online through PAWS. It is incumbent upon you to read this material carefully so that you will be aware of all the procedures which may affect your program selection.

General University Information – Students should acquaint themselves with the general university policies found on the University of Saskatchewan Course and Program Catalogue page, information and policies found under the “Academics tab” on their PAWS account, as well as other general university policies that pertain to students found on the University of Saskatchewan website.

Students are required to read and understand the College of Law Assessment Regulations.

ELECTIVE COURSES AND SEMINARS

Full-Time Program

Full-time students are required, in each term, to choose courses and seminars from the elective offerings for that term so that their total credits in a semester will not be less than 14 or more than 15. That typically will involve the completion of five courses/seminars each semester. A student may exceed the maximum of 15 hours with the permission of the Associate Dean.

Part-Time Program

Any student wishing to pursue part-time studies must seek approval from the Associate Dean Academic and must complete first year courses in two years and must complete the JD program in six years.

At the end of each academic year, a half-time student's program will be evaluated as set out in the College of Law Assessment Regulations.

Part-time students in the second half of first year are to obtain permission from the Associate Dean Academic for courses they wish to register in and the number of credit units they wish to take in both terms of the 2020-2021 academic year. This permission may be requested by sending an e-mail to the Associate Dean Academic ada.law@usask.ca prior to course selection date.

WRITING REQUIREMENTS

To meet the requirements for graduation, each student must complete three program requirements: a minor paper, a major paper, and a seminar class. It is permissible to complete more seminars and papers than this minimum requirement but you will not graduate without meeting the program requirement. Second year students are required to complete a writing requirement in second year. It is most common to complete the minor paper in second year and the seminar and major paper in third year. However, it certainly is possible to complete the major paper and seminar in second year. Students contemplating more complex variations, particularly those contemplating completing some upper year studies at another institution, should consult the Assessment Regulations.

A grade of at least 60% must be obtained on minor and major papers and in the seminar.

A major paper is to be a research paper and is to incorporate a substantial element of original analysis by the student. A minor paper may be a research paper, a case comment, drafting exercise, a book or literature review, or other writing exercise appropriate to the subject matter, such as a focussed analysis of specific issues relevant to a course, with the understanding that the only limitation on content is that implied by the general goal of developing writing skills.

Major paper – a single piece of work, 7,500 - 12,500 words exclusive of footnotes, bibliography, title pages and table of contents. An instructor has discretion to impose more specific limits on length within these maximum/minimum guidelines. A major paper must be valued at between 70% - 100% of the final mark in the course or seminar.

Minor paper – 4,000 – 12,500 words (exclusive of footnotes, bibliography, title pages and table of contents). A minor paper must constitute at least 25% of the final mark.

Seminar requirement - an advanced course with limited enrolment taught primarily by discussion of advanced concepts rather than through lecture or practical exercises.

NOTE: Some classes are limited enrolment classes but are not seminars. These include Negotiation, Mediation, and Trial Advocacy.

NOTE: Seminars carry three credit units; however, seminars are only timetabled for two hours. The additional hour is allocated for research and writing.

NOTE: You may want to check with the Law Society of the province in which you are considering articling to see if certain courses are required for your admission to the Bar.

MANDATORY COURSES

Students in their second year must complete Administrative Law 340.3. In their second or third year students must also take Legal Ethics and Professionalism 421.3 (students may instead take Legal Ethics Clinical Seminar 497.3 to meet this requirement), and an upper-year Indigenous Course.

EXAMINATION ACCOMMODATIONS

As part of the College of Law's commitment to offering its diverse student body an opportunity to display their knowledge in an equitable manner, Faculty Council has endorsed a policy on Examination Accommodation.

Arrangements are made to accommodate students who require either special facilities or extended time to complete examinations.

- I. If your need for examination accommodation falls within one of the following categories, your application should be made to the office of Access and Equity Services:
 - a) Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)
 - b) Autism spectrum disorder
 - c) Brain injury of concussion
 - d) Chronic health issues (bowel diseases, epilepsy, migraines)
 - e) Deaf/hard of hearing
 - f) Learning disability
 - g) Mental health (anxiety, depression, schizophrenia, eating disorders)
 - h) Mobility/functional issues
 - i) Low vision/legally blind
 - j) Temporary issues (broken limbs)

Students must be registered with AES in order to use the AES Exam Accommodation Program. Registration appointments can be made by calling 966-7273. Please be advised that the deadline to apply to Access and Equity Services is November 19th for first term exams and March 19th for second term exams. Information regarding the scheduling of exams (which includes information on the timing and place for writing your examinations) will be made available through the office of Access and Equity Services. Any errors or other consequences that result from a failure to apprise yourself of this scheduling information will be your responsibility.

- II. In addition to a discretionary power which rests with the Associate Dean to accommodate unique student needs, the following grounds have been acknowledged by Faculty Council as potentially sufficient for granting accommodation: English as a second language or aboriginal students who attended the NLCSP and who consistently attend the Academic Support Program; or for any other reason other than for a physical or mental disability or a learning disability

Students who otherwise meet the criteria for receiving extra examination time under the College of Law policy but who are registered with and receive extra examination time through Access and Equity Services for Students are entitled to:

- i) the extra time provided for under the College of Law policy or under the policies administered by the Office of Disability Services for Students whichever is greater; or,
- ii) such specific total extra time as is recommended in a written report to the Office of Disability Services for Students by a qualified expert, approved by the Associate Dean of Law, who has completed a functional assessment of the student demonstrating the need to provide examination accommodation beyond the amount provided for under i) The Office of Disability Services for Students shall consult with the Associate Dean of Law before such additional time is implemented.

If you wish to make a request for examination accommodation, please obtain the form from Law 280. Please keep an eye on your PAWS e-mail for a notice pertaining to exam accommodation.

DEFERRED EXAMINATION POLICY

If you experience a medical or personal problem that prevents you from writing an examination(s) at the normally scheduled time, you should do the following:

A. Medical Problem

The requirement that students bring notes from doctors when they miss deadlines, assignments and exams has been suspended for flu-like symptoms. Student Health Services has advised us that it will not provide such notes for students with flu-like symptoms. Instead students are required to submit a declaration that they have been suffering flu-like symptoms. A copy of the declaration may be found at here.

Requests for deferred exams should be submitted to the Associate Dean Academic, Professor Doug Surtees ada.law@usask.ca, with a copy to Louise Ferguson at louise.ferguson@usask.ca, for consideration by the Studies Committee. Please send your request for a deferral as early as possible, but no later than the day of your exam. At the College of Law, First Year students are not granted deferred exams for missed December exams (except for Constitutional Law 230.5 and Kwayeskastasowin, Setting Things Right, Law 232.3), as they are considered midterms. In such situations their final exam counts for 100% rather than the usual 80%. Exams deferred from the December exam period are normally written during the February break. Exams deferred from the April exam period are normally written in June.

B. Personal Problem

1. Notify the Associate Dean immediately
2. Submit a statement setting out the nature of the problem and any applicable documentary evidence within three days of the missed examination.

The Associate Dean can be reached at the following:

Office telephone no.: 966-5242
E-mail address: ada.law@usask.ca

The Associate Dean may be required to obtain further details from you (or a more detailed medical certificate), so try to provide the Associate Dean with sufficiently detailed information to make a decision.

ALL STUDENTS SHOULD BE AWARE OF THE FOLLOWING UNIVERSITY COUNCIL REGULATION:

1.4.5.iii A student who has sat for a given final examination and handed the paper in for marking will not be granted a deferred final examination.

EXTENSIONS

All term work must be completed by the last day of classes each term. Instructors may grant extensions to individual students up to and including the last day of College of Law examinations. Extensions beyond the last day of College of Law examinations may only be granted, with or without a penalty, by the Associate Dean Academic.

COMPLETING ELECTION OF COURSES AND SEMINARS

No student may elect a course or seminar for which there is a prerequisite that has not been completed. See PREREQUISITE DEFINITION in the KEY TO COURSE DESCRIPTIONS on page 19.

Although the course-description section refers to first or second term (1/2) courses and seminars, they will be offered only in the term(s) indicated on the elective lists, to be updated in the course selection material available on the website at a later date, and for the credit hours shown thereon.

Every student must ensure that there are no conflicts in their program with either the class timetable or examination timetable. If a student enrolls in overlapping classes they will be deemed to be in violation of College policy and will receive credit for one only of the two courses, with a WF (Withdraw/Fail) given for the other course. In addition, students are responsible to ensure they have adequate time between exams. Do not assume exams will be rescheduled simply because you have an exam accommodation stating 'one day between exams'. This is a generic accommodation primarily aimed at students in colleges where students are not able to schedule their own exams through course selection.

Students are required to attend classes in courses in which they are registered. Persistent failure to attend may lead to exclusion from the examination.

Participation in the Gale Moot, Law 427.3; Laskin Moot, Law 441.3; Aboriginal Moot, Law 447.3 ; Western Canada Moot, Law 450.3; Jessup Moot, Law 459.3; Mediation Moot 448.3; Corporate Securities Moot, Law 464.3; Donald G. H. Bowman National Tax Moot, Law 479.3 and Environmental Law Moot 498.3 straddles both terms, beginning in early October. The Moot competitions take place at some Canadian location in late February or early March. Hotel, meals and travel expenses associated with these competitions are paid by the College. Participants in the Gale Moot Competition, the Laskin Moot Competition, Aboriginal Moot Competition, Western Canada Moot Competition, Jessup Moot Competition, Corporate/Securities Moot Competition, Mediation Moot Competition; Donald G. H. Bowman National Tax Moot and Environmental Moot Competition will receive three hours credit. Students participating in these moots may receive credit for their participation in either term one or term two but not both. Students will need to designate in which term they would like to receive credit by registering in the term in which they wish to receive credit. Those students who choose to receive credit for the moot in term one will not receive a final mark until the moot is completed. Upper year students are limited to one external moot per academic year in second and third year. This principle would be subject to exceptions as determined by the Associate Dean, Academic.

You will not be able to register in Gale Moot 427.3; Laskin Moot 441.3; Aboriginal Moot 447.3; Mediation Advocacy Moot 448.3; Western Canada Moot 450.3; Jessup Moot 459.3; Corporate/Securities Moot 464.3; Donald G. H. Bowman National Tax Moot 479.3 or Environmental Moot 498.3 as a registration selection. Later in the year (usually in Fall) students are invited to participate and a team is selected. Students will be notified when the members of the moot have been selected. Students will be able to self-register when they have been notified that they have been selected. Students will then need to register in the moot which they have been selected, deleting a course and adding Gale Moot 427.3; Laskin Moot 441.3; Aboriginal Moot 447.3; Mediation Advocacy Moot 448.3; Western Canada Moot 450.3; Jessup Moot 459.3; Corporate/Securities Moot 464.3; Donald G. H. Bowman National Tax Moot 479.3; or Environmental Moot 498.3.

The I.D.R. course (Individual Directed Research) is available to students who wish to write a research paper in an area that is not the subject of instruction in other courses offered in the College. Students interested in doing an I.D.R. for three hours credit must contact individual professors to determine if they are interested in supervising a research paper. Individual Directed Research proposal forms (available from Law 280) must be submitted prior to the term in which the student wishes to undertake the I.D.R. Students will be notified if their I.D.R. proposal has been approved by Studies Committee during the add/drop period in September or the beginning of term two. Students may then self-register in the class. If the course is approved, you will need to drop a course and add the I.D.R. during the course change period.

Courses which are sectioned in one or both terms have an enrolment limit of 70 per section. Courses offered in only one term will have a limit of 90 students. However, for pedagogical or logistical reasons, there is a lower limit for some courses.

Courses with low enrolment are subject to cancellation. Students will be notified if a course is being considered for cancellation due to low enrolment.

The Law Review course is valued at three credit units. As the course description outlines, the requirements of Law Review participants vary greatly from other seminars. Students will receive credit in Law Review for either first OR second term but not both. Please see the course description with regard to selection for Law Review. Invitation letters will be distributed later in the Spring. Do not list Law Review 490.3 as one of your choices in your program selection, but only indicate your interest in the space provided. Please note information regarding how to apply to be selected for Law Review on the balloting page. Experience in writing, publishing, or editing are examples of relevant qualifications. When the members of the class have been selected, the Faculty Editor will notify you of the decision. You will then be able to self-register in the class deleting a course and adding Law Review in the term in which you wish to receive credit. If selected to participate in the Law Review course, a student will be required to notify the Faculty Editor, by a specific date of intention to remain in the course

Each student's program will be subject to final approval by the Dean or Associate Dean.

UPPER YEAR SELF-REGISTRATION

On Tuesday, June 30th (at 12:00 Noon) students will be able to self-register in law classes. Self-registration will be possible by accessing the Registration Channel in PAWs. Additional Registration information may be found on the Classes and registration page. There are also additional tools that can be found at this site to help students put together a workable timetable. Remember to check the exam schedule prior to selecting courses.

OUTSIDE COURSES

1. For Credit in the Law Program

Students in the College of Law may be permitted to take up to six credit units of courses given by another college, during either second or third year. In order to elect an outside course for credit in the law program the outside approval course form must be completed and then authorized by the appropriate administrative personnel of the outside College as well as the Associate Dean Academic, College of Law. This approval form should then go back to staff in Law 280, Student Services Office. Permission to include an outside course is given on the basis of how the course would contribute to your understanding of the law.

Students pursuing studies at another law school are responsible for having two official transcripts from that school forwarded directly to the Associate Dean Academic, College of Law, 15 Campus Drive, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, SK, S7N 5A6 upon completion of their studies so that credit may be applied. Students are responsible for ensuring that these transcripts are received prior to the end of the course change period in Term One. All students must obtain the prior written permission of the Associate Dean Academic before enrolling in any intersession or summer session courses.

Students wishing to enroll as a letter of permission student at another Canadian law school during the summer or regular academic session should see the Associate Dean.

2. Not for Credit in Law Program

Any student who proposes to take a university course outside of the College of Law, but not for credit in the College of Law, must complete a form (available from Law 280). Permission from the Associate Dean, Academic is required.

NOTE: There will be no rescheduling of any student's law examinations where the final schedule results in conflicting or closely-spaced examinations.

ALSO NOTE: Students enrolled in Combined Programs should consult with the College involved regarding requirements and JD courses accepted as credit.

EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

The University of Saskatchewan has formal agreements with a number of universities around the world.

If you would like more information about exchange opportunities, please contact the International Students & Study Abroad Centre, Room 80, Lower Place Riel, telephone number (306) 966-4925.

The College of Law has College to College exchange agreements with Lund University (Sweden), University of Liege (Belgium), University of Lapland (Finland), University of Liverpool (UK), and Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary).

MOOT COMPETITIONS

Moots are application-based courses and are advertised in the Fall each year.

Aboriginal Rights Moot (Kawaskimhon - "Speaking with Knowledge")

The Aboriginal Rights Moot is a non-competitive moot structured on the traditional Aboriginal circle consensus-building process. It is designed to allow Aboriginal law students to debate and discuss Aboriginal rights issues vital to the Aboriginal peoples. Students selected for Aboriginal Rights Moot will receive 3 credit units for the "course" in either term one or term two. All expenses associated with the Aboriginal Rights Moot are paid by the College.

Gale Cup Moot Competition

Students selected for Gale Cup will receive 3 credit units for the "course" in either term one or term two. Participation in the Gale Cup Moot straddles both terms; beginning in October with the selection of the teams and receipt of the problem culminating in the moot competition late in February or early March at Osgoode Hall in Toronto. All expenses associated with Gale Cup Moot are paid by the College.

Jessup Moot

Students selected for Jessup will receive 3 credit units for the "course" in either term one or term two. Participation in the Jessup straddles both terms; beginning in October with selection of the teams and receipt of the problem and culminating in the moot competition late in February or early March at some Canadian location. Accommodation, meals and travel expenses associated with the Jessup Moot Competition are paid by the College.

Laskin Moot

Students selected for Laskin will receive 3 credit units for the "course" in either term one or term two. Participation in the Laskin straddles both terms; beginning in October with the selection of the teams and receipt of the problem and culminating in the moot competition late in February or early March at some Canadian location. Accommodation, meals and travel expenses associated with the Laskin are paid by the College.

Western Canada Moot Court Competition

Students selected for Western Canada Moot Court Competition will receive 3 credit units for the "course" in either term one or term two. The Western Canada Moot Court Competition is a trial advocacy competition involving the 6 western Canadian law schools. As this is not an appellate moot, the preparation of factums is not required. The problem is likely to involve evidence, criminal procedure and criminal law. Additional information regarding this competition and the selection of the participants will be posted in the College after the commencement of classes in September. Accommodation, meals and travel expenses associated with the Western Canada Moot Court Competition are paid by the College.

Corporate/Securities Moot

Students selected for the Corporate/Securities Moot Competition will receive 3 credit units for the "course" in either term one or term two. The Canadian Corporate/Securities Moot is an appellate advocacy competition on a problem in the corporate law and/or securities law areas. Information and selection processes for the competition will be announced in the Fall. Accommodation, meals and travel expenses associated with the Corporate/Securities Moot Competition are paid by the moot sponsors.

Mediation Advocacy Moot

Students selected for the Mediation Advocacy Moot Competition will receive 3 credit units for the "course" in either term one or term two. Information and selection processes for the competition will be announced in the Fall. Accommodation, meals and travel expenses associated with the Mediation Advocacy Moot Competition are paid by the moot sponsors.

Environmental Law Moot

Students selected for the Environmental Moot Competition will receive 3 credit units for the "course" in either term one or term two. Information and selection processes for the competition will be announced in the Fall. Accommodation, meals and travel expenses associated with the Environmental Moot Competition are paid by the moot sponsors.

Donald G. H. Bowman National Tax Moot

Up to five students will be selected annually to participate in the Donald G. H. Bowman National Tax Moot held in Toronto. The moot will involve research and advocacy, both oral and written, and will allow students from Canadian law schools to debate current legal issues in taxation law with senior tax practitioners and with justices of the Tax Court and Federal Court of Appeal. The seminar is recommended to those with an interest in advocacy, exacting research and taxation issues.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

The following are listed as approved offerings of the College of Law. It is hoped all but a few of these courses will be offered in the next two academic years. The detailed course description for some of these courses is not yet available, and will be provided at a later date.
