*Law Foundation of Saskatchewan H. Robert Arscott Chair LectureJustice and Community Development...A Way Forward

Speaker: Professor Glen Gardner, Law Foundation of Saskatchewan H. Robert Arscott Chair

Effective, affordable, accessible, and understandable justice services are essential to building stronger communities. How can these services be built and aligned to bring communities fully into the management of justice challenges? How can addressing these challenges be turned into opportunities to build community? How can initiatives in communities and the work of traditional justice service providers support each other? This presentation will examine these questions and propose system changes to achieve these results.
